DAY 3 - UNDERGROUND RIVER

After a delicious breakfast, we head to the UNESCO World heritage Underground River. We jump into a small boat, and are taken around this amazing place by an experienced local guide. In the afternoon, we drive along dirt roads to the beautiful village of Port Barton. We spend the night in a beach bungalow listening to the sounds of the ocean.

Meals - Breakfast & Lunch
Accommodation - Twin Rooms
Elsas Beach Cottages

DAY 4 - BEACH CAMPING

Today we get to experience the local island way of life, with our Islander Experience. After breakfast, we join our local guides on our custom made boat. We start with a very special visit to a local school before we then begin exploring the islands and experiencing the islander way of life. We will eat fresh grilled fish on the beach, snorkel reefs and really get to know this incredible area. In the evening, our guides will make a bonfire while we watch the sunset. Accommodation for the night is in tents right on the beach.

Meals - Lunch & Dinner
Accommodation - Beach Camping

DAY 5 - ISLAND HOPPING

Today we awake to the sounds of the ocean, step out of our tents and take in the beauty for one final time of our own private island before going in search of turtles and waterfalls. Another beautiful lunch is served up on the boat before we head back to Port Barton. Accommodation for the night is back in our beach bungalows.

DAY 6 - TRAVEL TO EL NIDO

In the morning we all jump into a bus and we are on our way to El Nido! When we arrive, you will see why Palawan was named the most beautiful island group in the world.

Surrounded by islands and cliffs. Once you pick your jaws up off the ground, we will check in to the funkiest hostel in Palawan. Exclusive to One Life, this slick hostel looks more like a boutique hotel than a backpackers! Settle in, then head out to one of our favourite beach bars in the evening for food and fun.

DAY 7 - THE PHILIPPINES EXPERIENCE

Today we have our cultural experience in the surrounding area of El Nido in small villages. This will be with local people showing you their traditional ways of living; a great way to experience a slice of local life.

Learn how they make coconut oil, try weaving with palm leaves, discover the secret to making the famous Filipino food 'Adobo' and then finish with a Halo-Halo (Filipino iced dessert). We then head to the amazing Las Cabanas beach where you get the option to experience flying on a 750m long zip line over the ocean between 2 tropical islands (own cost of 500php).

DAY 9 - CANOPY WALK & MASSAGE

Today we make our way through the small streets of the town to where we start our canopy walk. We climb to the top of the limestone cliffs surrounding the town for an unbelievable view of the bay and islands. Definitely the best views in the area! Spend the rest of your day exploring and getting to know El Nido and meeting the locals. Today we include a traditional Filipino massage to ease those aching muscles. In the evening we meet for our final dinner together
